

D. V. O. C. Day at Catoxen

May 30, 1900

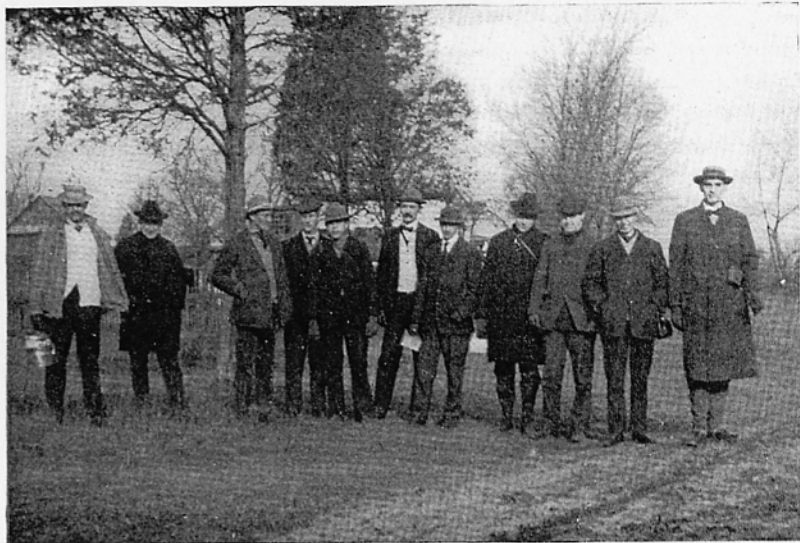

BAILY, THE CAMERA KING

H. BROWN (VISITOR), STONE, EMLÉN, E. EVAN², MORRIS
RHOADS, COGGINS, BAILY, SHRYOCK, S. BROWN

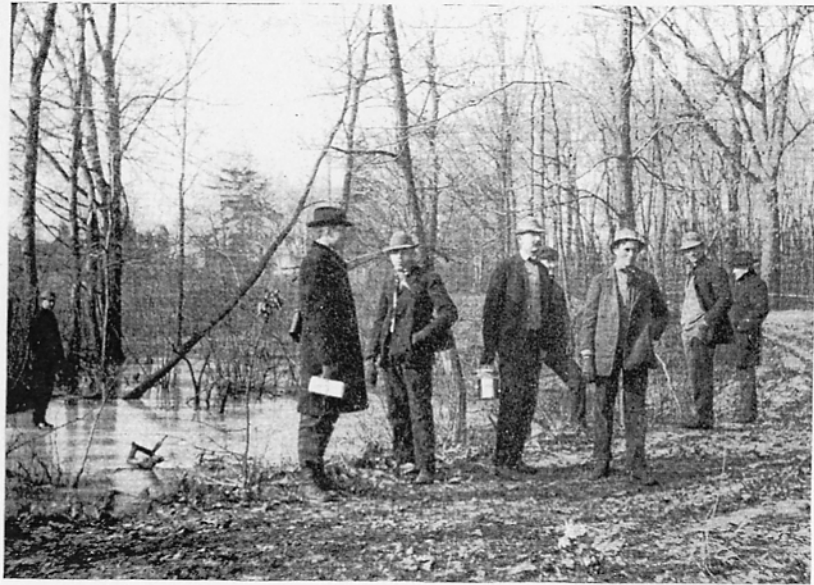

SHRYOCK, BROWN AND COGGINS
DIGESTING THEIR STRAWBERRIES

SCOVILLE GRIFFITHS LORILLIERE BARTRAM CARTER KEIM ROBERTS
 REDFIELD HUNT HARROWER I. MILLER

THE START

The Marathon Halts

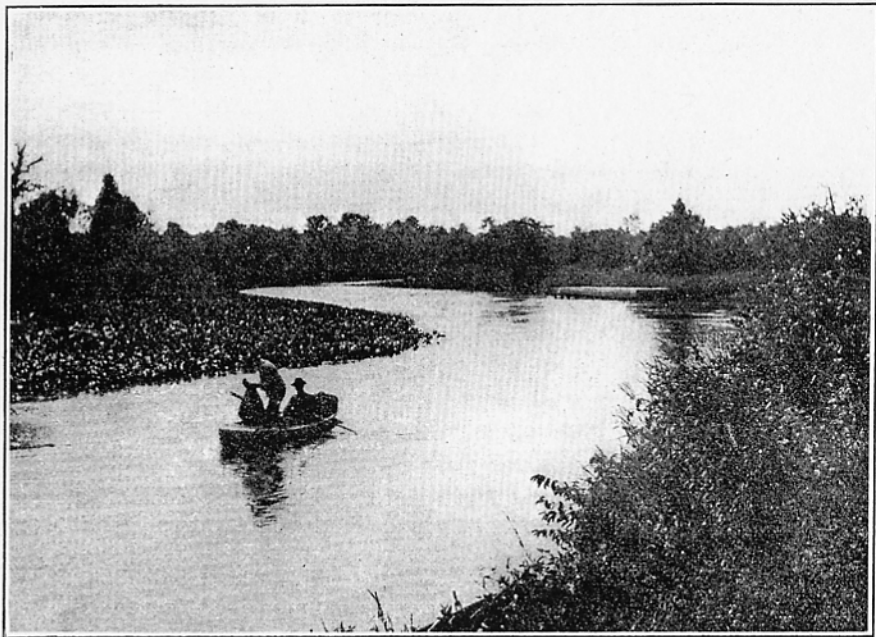

KEIM, CARTER, HUNT, BARTRAM, STREET
REDFIELD, GRIFFITHS

Rail Birds

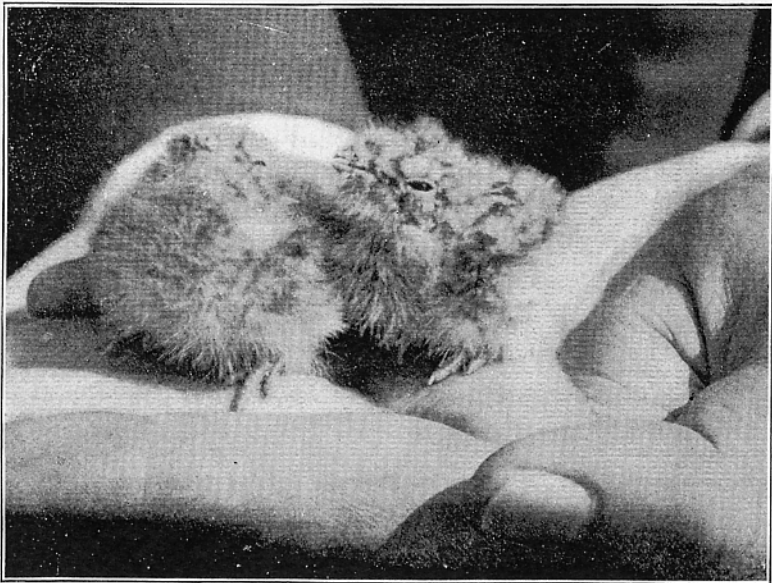

REDFIELD, MILLER, SCOVILLE, HARROWER, LORRILLIERE
ROBERTS, BARTRAM, BAILY

VIEW OF THE PENSAUKEN AT 'DOMUS PALUSTRIS'

THE CABIN OF HUNT AND GRIFFITHS

Having no portrait of Serrill, we present a picture of his hand—one of the 'glad hands' of fellowship which are so conspicuous at D. V. O. C. meetings. This hand moreover contains two birds and their puny condition probably suggested the motto adopted by BIRDLORE i. e. "A bird in the Bush is worth two in the Hand." Any old bush bird would be worth two like these!